

White House Millinery

FROM the very beginning, the Millinery Department was regarded by El Paso people as the logical place to secure stylish hats of all kinds. Now that the season is fully advanced and practical millinery is the need of the hour, we advise you that we have anticipated your wants. Recent New York shipments add considerable interest to our display, as many new mid-season styles are shown.

Millinery At Moderate Prices

IT IS the consensus of opinion that all our millinery is moderately priced. This is readily understood when you take into consideration that our New York buying organization secures considerably lower prices than would be the case if millinery alone was bought. In this connection, we want to impress on you that with millinery, like everything else offered at "The White House," we adhere strictly to the one-price system.

The White House Millinery Workrooms

For our new Millinery Department we brought on a corps of skilled designers and trimmers. This fact, coupled with our immense stock of shapes, flowers and millinery materials of all kinds, makes it possible for us to make to your order any kind of hat you desire at any price you care to pay. In case you have a last season's hat that you want made over, we will gladly execute the order for you at a nominal charge.

Trimmings Section

We carry the largest stock in El Paso of ribbons, silks, velvets, flowers and feathers. Attention is also directed to our large line of theater caps, opera bags and boudoir caps. We also carry the largest stock of veils and veiling to be seen in El Paso.

CHINA

IS AT THE OTHER END!

When you buy a piece of real estate, you own the ground all the way down. Ever think of it? What other security is so substantial?

The past six months' experience, when with the bottom falling completely out of nearly every other kind of security, real estate has stood firm, has turned all eyes to realty as the one safe investment.

The effect is going to be felt in real estate in El Paso; is being felt now. We feel it in the increased number of inquiries we are receiving. This is the time to buy, for El Paso property is going higher.

EXECUTIONS BY MEXICAN REBELS

pretend to know him. He is said to be absolutely without feeling, and mercy is a quality never attributed to him.

It is held by those who seek to defend Salazar's actions in the incident of the "key form" upon Fountain, that the latter had forfeited any rights as a prisoner of war when he enlisted under the banner of Villa, who was reputed to have said that he would give no quarter to any prisoners and expected none, and therefore deserved to be treated as a pirate.

It is said that when he captured the town of Atotonilco, Salazar found in one adobe house of the town Capt. Joaquin Palaz, of the tenth regiment lying in bed suffering from a severe wound, but alive. Capt. Palaz, it is said, begged to be spared on the ground that he had a wife and eight children, but notwithstanding the appeal, Salazar, who had his pistol in his hand, stopped the which tore the officer's head to fragmenting with a fusillade of bullets. Gen. Salazar, in defence, says that Capt. Palaz was the officer who on the night following the fight at Dolores Ranch permitted the men to murder the women, found huddled in a little house out of the zone of fire, and after the murder and outrage to mutilate the bodies of their victims.

Whether Capt. Palaz was responsible for the outrage is not definitely known, but Salazar believed him to be and forced him to pay the extreme penalty.

CIVIL OFFICERS NAMED AT PARRAL

Salazar's Men March Overland Looking For Federals.

(By Geo. H. Clements.)

Parral, Chihuahua, Mex., April 19.—Leaving a garrison of 200 men at Parral and 100 at Santa Barbara, all under the command of major Rodriguez Quevedo as jefe de armas of the district, Gen. Salazar and his staff with 800 men started Tuesday overland for Jimenez by way of Valle Allende and Atotonilco with 100 men going from Parral by train.

The garrisons left at Parral and Santa Barbara are deemed capable to cope with any force which can be gathered to attack either city. The object of Salazar's overland trip is not plain except on the theory that stories to the effect that federals are moving on Jimenez over the same course followed by Gen. Tracy Aubert recently are true and Gen. Salazar proposes to intercept or cut in behind them.

Owing to scarcity of supplies, mining properties are closing down and only the prompt opening up of traffic can save the mining district from disaster, the closing of the mines will throw thousands out of work and out of food, making them a menace to the place. Gen. Salazar is doing his best in his power to restore train service.

At a meeting of leading citizens the following officials were suggested and were appointed by Gen. Salazar: Presidente municipal, Miguel Tinoco; suplente, E. A. Salinas; regidores, Rafael Garza, Salvador Munoz, Salvador Garcia, Jesus Lugo, Mariano Loya; suplente, Juan Parras, Augustin Yoberti, Alton Gomez, Jesus Valles.

REBELS ROUTED FROM JOJUTLA

Federal Government Claims That 500 Were Killed in the Battle.

Mexico City, Mexico, April 19.—Rebel forces were routed from the city of Jojutla, Morelos, an important commercial center, yesterday and 500 of their number were killed in the fight, according to dispatches made public at the department of the interior last night.

Jojutla fell into the hands of a Zapata band several days ago. Yesterday the federals surrounded the town and stormed the little city from all sides. Artillery was used with deadly effect. The federal loss is placed at three officers and 10 men killed and wounded. Alfonso Barrera, Zambrano, nephew of the president, who was in command of a corps of rurales, is among the dead. Early reports that Emilio Zapata was in personal command of the rebels is denied.

BORDER STEALING SHOWS A DECREASE

Stationing of Rangers Below El Paso Has Good Effect.

Austin, Texas, April 19.—Since state rangers were stationed at about 19 different points extending between El Paso and Del Rio to protect the people from the ravaging of Mexican bandits, there has been a material decrease in this character of thieving, according to information and reports received by the governor from the rangers stationed at these points.

The Mexicans, it appears, have a strong aversion to coming in contact with a state ranger, indeed they have greater fear of a ranger than of several regulars, according to those in a position to know, consequently they are not taking any chances of coming in contact with the state police.

DAY SCHEDULE ON CENTRAL RESUMED

No Pullman Cars For Use at Night; Trains to Operate in Day.

The Mexican Central time table for passenger service has been changed and beginning Thursday morning, the trains will be run on a daylight schedule, instead of on a night schedule as is used at the present time.

The arriving time of the trains is Juarez will be 6:35 in the evening and the train for the south will leave Juarez at 7:35 a. m. The change of schedule was ordered by the provisional superintendent, P. Benio, who was appointed this week, principally because there are no Pullman cars for use at night.

No train will leave Juarez tonight, in order to have the day schedule go into effect Thursday.
